Alice was not scared. Not at all. Maybe a little bit. But she was determined to confront the ghost in her house. Alice lived in a farmhouse built in 1921. All of the floors and doors were original; the doors even had skeleton key locks. But by far the most terrifying part of the house was the basement. She kept that door locked and ignored the thumps, crashes, and cries that came from below the house. What made Alice determined to confront the ghost today was the especially loud crashes the previous night. She'd gotten no sleep, convinced the ghost was going to break through the door and do something horrible. What, she wasn't sure, but the ghost would do something.

Alice hadn't seen the ghost, but what else could be making loud noises in an old house? The one time she had been down in the basement was after buying the house unseen. Once she saw the shelves with old glass jars, she was a little put off. But what made her keep the door shut and locked was the abrupt end of the concrete floor halfway across the room. Because nothing good ever happened in a basement with a dirt floor. Alice had seen enough horror movies to know that.

Alice stared at the basement door, trying to gather enough confidence to

Founded in 1905 as a railroad stop, Las Vegas saw steadily increasing traffic to an otherwise remote part of the Nevada desert. 1931 was a big year for Nevada's economic progress due to the legalization of gambling and the start of construction on the Hoover Dam. By the 1940s, the first hotel casino combinations began sprouting up. To reduce the stigma of lawlessness, the Nevada Gaming Commission was created in 1959. Throughout the 1980s, mega-resorts took over what we now know as "The Strip." Recently, a ban on sports betting was overturned, leading to increased gambling revenue. With the allure of frivolity and entertainment, Las Vegas is one of America's top vacation destinations.

Stimulus: 2 of 2

Which of the following pieces of information, if included, would best support the argument that Las Vegas has become a destination city for entertainment?

- A line graph depicting the yearly number of highly attended events held in Las Vegas compared to New York
- An analysis of marketing strategies used by Las Vegas casinos in the 1980s
- Personal stories from long-term residents describing the transformation of Las Vegas
- A comparison chart of gambling revenues of Las Vegas against Monte Carlo

Beard Superiority

Unlike most others who follow along with popular trends, I am able to truly see that the beard is superior to the mustache. First, you have so much more hair and space to work with when styling a beard than you do with a mustache. You can trim and cut a beard into so many styles: the Muttonchop, the Goatee, the Stubble, the Chin Strap. You can even add things to your beard: braids, beads, glitter, and color — the possibilities of what you can add to a beard are endless! There are even professional competitions that surround the stylish nature of beards.
